

By relaxing regulation, we will allow further monopolization of the marketplace, which will be detrimental to consumers, small businesses and the free market. Please do not relax the current level of telecommunications regulation. Thank you.